

Medical Records Retrieval System

Identify the domain of the given information retrieval system : Healthcare

The data source:

Patient name, Patient age, disease, past history, gender

Objective : to retrieve all the information or records regarding the patient and its medical history

Characteristics : Date of admission,age,previous doctor contacted or referred, disease type

Navigation System

Identify the domain of the given information retrieval system : Web mapping

The data source : Datasets provided by the satellites like images, geological surveys, government maps,etc

Objective: To provide detailed information about geographical regions and sites worldwide and to suggest new places according to the location nearby.

Characteristics:

Warehouse Storage System

Identify the domain of the given information retrieval system : Logistics

The data source : ProductID, Product destination, Weight, Quantity,

Objective: To provide detailed information about geographical regions and sites worldwide and to suggest new places according to the location nearby.

Characteristics:

Stocks Prediction

Domain: Analysis

Data Source : Datasets provided by BSE,NSE and other stock exchanges which has stock name, stock price, stock history, returns,

Objective : to provide information regarding the company, past performance, price and new ipos coming in the market